Our PEOPLE

PAUL RYAN
MANAGING DIRECTOR

Our Managing Director and co-founder Paul Ryan, might not have stepped foot on a plane until he was 15 years old, but he's been steadily making up lost ground. Having visited some of the most fascinating places across the globe, and holding senior roles with the UK and Australia's largest travel companies for close to two decades, Paul created Inspiring Vacations with Brendon, our Head of Travel and James, our Head of Operations.

Paul and his family in Melbourne

Paul and his wife in Egypt

Paul doesn't have a favourite destination; for him every trip has been memorable in one way or another.

Cruising on Hurtigruten's new MS Roald Amundsen from Svalbard across to Greenland's east coast and then over to the west coast of Iceland was certainly unforgettable, but it was a 10-day "all too quick" jaunt through Egypt and Jordan with his family in 2019 that resonates. Standing outside the church on Mount Nebo, looking out across the Jordan valley to Jericho and the Dead Sea – Moses' supposed burial site nearby – Paul recalls: "it was awe-inspiring to consider the thousands of years of formative history that unfolded across this view."

choosing a holiday
is not a life-altering decision but it's an important one

As the illustrious leader of this travel company, Paul sagely observes that "choosing a holiday is not a life-altering decision but it's an important one." His role is to ensure our customer can trust us – trust that you are getting a trusted (and Inspiring) Vacation at a trusted value for money price, backed up with expert and local customer service.

BRENDON COOPER
HEAD OF TRAVEL

Always looking for his next adventure – close to home or in a souk on the other side of the world – travel is serious business for Brendon, so much so, he co-founded Inspiring Vacations with Paul and James and as Head of Travel, he is responsible for creating all the itineraries you see on our site.

Brendon has been in the tourism industry for 15 years but the travel bug bit from an early age. Growing up, Brendon says he was very fortunate to have parents that were passionate about seeing the world and naturally his early travel experiences have shaped his view of the world; travel is just part of his DNA.

For Brendon, travel is about trying new things, including the cuisine. When in Rome, right? Or on this occasion, China. Travelling the far western corner of China, near the Tibetan border, a family invited Brendon's travel industry group trip into their home for a meal but it was the alcoholic drink that was memorable. After the third or fourth round someone asked what this delicious tiple was made from. The host retrieved the 20L jug the drink was fermenting in, and to the group's surprise (and slight horror), hundreds of bright orange and black caterpillars sat stewing in the liquid along with a native fungus. The caterpillars weren't enough to stop some of the group asking for a small takeaway flask to enjoy later that night.

While Brendon's job description doesn't involve sourcing the best fermented drinks to have on tour, each itinerary he and his team curate is from the heart – every tour is one Brendon would go on himself. The beauty of his job means he can travel vicariously and he says the biggest satisfaction is hearing customers' own travel stories and the incredible experiences they have on tour.

*Brendon and his wife
on a Hurtigruten cruise*

JAMES CATHIE
HEAD OF OPERATIONS

When our co-founder and Head of Operations isn't travelling the world, you'll find James in the kitchen recreating tapas from that bar in Barcelona, noodles from a certain laneway in Hanoi or tagine from that Marrakech market stall.

After travelling extensively across Australia as a child, and venturing off on the obligatory post-university overseas trip in his twenties, there was no turning back: James was ensnared by the travel bug and ever since, there's always an upcoming holiday marked on his calendar.

It's no surprise then that James has worked in the travel industry for eight years and co-founded Inspiring Vacations with fellow travel lovers Paul and Brendon.

James' job is part juggling and crystal ball gazing. Sort of. If there's an approaching typhoon or a transfer delayed by traffic, James will know about it and how it could impact our customers' travel plans. Those high-pressure moments to ensure a customer's itinerary runs smoothly are tempered by the pleasure in seeing positive feedback on their return or the happy snaps shared on social media. James considers it a unique and fortunate position to impact Inspiring Vacations' commitment to constantly deliver positively memorable travel experiences.

James' favourite travel memory is the two weeks spent in Sri Lanka as a family and all the resulting shared experiences that they still talk of today. There are no epic stories and no memorable disasters; nothing that classifies as a quintessential travel story, but as he fondly recounts: "We walked and climbed, ate and drank, talked and laughed (and only occasionally argued) and, to me, a life lived while travelling is the perfect travel story."

James in Turkey

UJJWAL
DIRECTOR, INDIA

Ujjwal enjoys touring Japan

As well as being a frequent traveller, Ujjwal has been in the tourism industry for 25 years, working for a leading tour operator in India in customer service, product development and procurement.

Ujjwal's passion for travel started in high school when he attended adventure camps for skiing, mountaineering and water sports. It was no surprise then, that he decided to study tourism at postgraduate level. While he has many happy memories both travelling within India and abroad, his most memorable was his first visit to Japan, "the culture in Japan impressed me the most and a visit to Hiroshima was very moving; my respect for Japanese cultures grew tenfold."

Ujjwal believes that travel is the best educator: it widens our horizons and inspires. "There is no substitute for a planned holiday if you crave learning about different cultures and civilisations."

Ujjwal and his family in Nubra Valley

DINESH
HEAD OF SALES, INDIA

Dinesh in South Africa

A passionate traveller Dinesh, our Head of Sales, decided to make his passion his profession. His love for exploring the world started in his youth, trekking and camping in the Himalayas and travelling across India with friends.

After completing a Masters in Travel Management, his first international trip to Dubai cemented his love for travel and Dinesh has travelled to 40 countries – and counting – since. Having experienced a rich two decades in the industry, Dinesh has held senior positions with some of India's most-loved travel brands.

Dinesh isn't lacking in fond travel memories, and one particular visit to South Africa stands out. Staying in a luxury tent in the middle of Kruger National Park was a dream opportunity to see all the famed Big Five. On their last night at the lodge, having sampled some of South Africa's finest wines, one group member forgot their locker code that held their passport. The manager, who lived 40km from the reserve, held the master key and rescued the day – or night, rather, as it was three o'clock in the morning! Dinesh appreciated the dedication to customer experience, reflected in his own work in the industry.

Here's a sample of what they have to say about our tours

FINLAND & NORWAY

We did an Inspiring Vacations tour of Finland and Norway - what a wonderful trip we had! Everything was so well organised and the accommodation was fantastic. Our tour guide was full of knowledge and really looked after us.

- Julie C

SPAIN, PORTUGAL & MOROCCO

Our tour to Spain, Portugal and Morocco was amazing. Everything was organised professionally, and easily understood. Our guide, Rachel, was outstanding, going out of her way to assist with the many and varied problems that come with a busload of travellers. Her English was easily understood and her knowledge of the three countries was incredible.

- Dianne H

CANADA/ALASKA

Excellent trip. The tour guide was great; very informative, friendly and we saw everything we wanted but some extras. Everything was well organised. Would recommend this tour to everyone who has Canada/Alaska on their bucket list.

- Michelle B

TURKEY

Absolutely loved it. Took the trip in 2019 and it was one of the best we have done and I have traveled the Globe.

- Judaline H

EGYPT & JORDAN

We did the Egypt/Jordan tour and it was absolutely amazing! The whole trip/experience was truly incredible - definitely the best thing we have ever experienced in our lifetime! We will be using Inspiring Vacations again, we can't recommend them enough. Nothing seemed to be too much trouble for the guides who were there whenever we needed them. If you are contemplating booking with Inspiring Vacations, don't hesitate, you will love your trip! We only wish we were coming along to do it all over again with you!

- Dianne M

AUSTRALIA

Travelled to the Kimberley in 2020 and the experience was just amazing. The accommodation and meals were excellent and our guide was very knowledgeable and enthusiastic about showing us this part of the country - I would highly recommend the trip.

- Gayle H

INDIA

I loved it so much, I felt like going straight back. Our guide, Shakti, was one of the main reasons that our India tour went so well. The two stand-outs for me were the dawn and dusk visits to the Ganges at Varanasi, with its ceremonies and boat rides and, secondly, the visit to the Lucknow Mosque. The people of India were friendly, and courteous. I enjoyed my Inspiring Vacations tour very much. When I got home,

I felt like going straight back!
